Dear Mr. Barnes:

Re: Board of Regents Code of Conduct

Further to the special meeting of the Board of Regents to review your recent email communications in accordance with the Code of Conduct on Tuesday August 13, 2024, the Board of Regents has voted in favour of issuing this letter of reprimand.

The Office of the Board of Regents and the Office of the President, as well as individual members of the Board of Regents have received concerns raised by members of the University community, alumni, as well as individuals from the province and abroad. As a result of this feedback, the Board of Regents initiated a review under the Code of Conduct.
